RE: Henderson, William
DKT. NO. : 07-00549-003
Request to allow supervision to expire with restitution owing

Dear Judge Walls:

On April 13, 2009, Henderson was sentenced by Your Honor to time served (25 months) followed by two years of supervised release for Possession of Cocaine Base. His term of supervised release began immediately. The offender was in Integrity transitional housing, and recently secured an apartment of his own.

The offender's case expires tomorrow, April 12, 2011.

The offender has paid his special assessment, but was unable to pay the fine of $1,000.00. The offender is collecting social security and is on a fixed income. He has a part-time job as a barber, however, he only makes enough income to meet his monthly expenses. We will notify the Financial Litigation Unit to continue to collect after expiration of his case. Should the Court concur with our request to allow the term to expire with restitution owing, please sign below and return to the Probation Office. If Your Honor wishes to discuss this matter further, please contact the undersigned officer at (973) 207-9955.

Honorable William H. Walls
I agree to allow the supervision to end with restitution owing _____

Respectfully submitted,

CHRISTOPHER MALONEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
